i You only need one ID.me account

If you already have an account, don't create a new one. You can use the same ID.me account to sign in to different IRS online services.

IRS now offers a sign-in option with ID.me, which offers access to IRS online services with a secure account that protects your privacy.

ID.me is an account created, maintained, and secured by a technology provider.

If you don't have an ID.me account, you must create a new account.

Power of Attorney and Tax Information Authorizations

View, approve or reject authorization requests sent to your account:

- Power of Attorney (POA) – Authorize an individual to represent you in tax matters before the IRS and to review or receive your confidential tax information for the tax matters and years you specify.
- Tax Information Authorization (TIA) – Designate an individual, corporation, firm, organization or partnership to receive your confidential tax information for the tax matters and years you specify.

More about third-party authorizations ↗

You still must meet your tax obligations when you authorize someone to represent you.

Sign up for email notifications about authorizations in your profile.

Online Authorization Requests

You have no online requests for authorization from a tax professional.
